"I'm devoting my life to ensure

Salim / Transplant Researcher

I get a second chance at time."

Roxanne / Transplant Recipient

Researchers taking on the challenge of ensuring that the body's immune system accepts a transplanted organ are pioneering medicines that not only help prevent its rejection, but also a recurrence of the disease that was the problem in the first place.

Welcome to the future of medicine. For all of us.

"I keep pursuing new HIV/AIDS treatments

Brian / North Carolina HIV/AIDS Researcher

which is why 29 years later, I'm still here."

James / California HIV/AIDS Patient

In the unrelenting push to defeat HIV/AIDS, scientists' groundbreaking research with brave patients in trials has produced powerful combination antiretroviral treatments,

"I'll sleep when every T cell I've armed

Ted / Cancer Researcher

has beaten every cancer cell I have."

Matt / Cancer Patient

Researchers are pioneering medicines that didn't even exist ten years ago—innovating ways for the body's own immune system to destroy invading cancer cells, and for some cancers, helping to nearly double patients' survival rates. Welcome to the future of medicine. For all of us.
